Board Approval

Approval of portable signs will be subject to the following rules and restrictions:

- Maximum size 1.0 metres x 1.0 metres.
- A maximum of one sign will be permitted per business premises on either private or public land in zone CDZ1 or RDZ1.
- Sandwich Board signs must be permanently open or able to be securely locked open to prevent accidental or unintended closing
- Sandwich board signs will be permitted only where they are in accordance with the design guidelines. Such signs are to have a design theme which is compatible with other street furniture, be professionally made and painted, be placed so that pedestrian areas are uncluttered and access and egress from buildings, shops and cars is unimpeded and be aimed at informing the pedestrian, rather than the driver.
- Sandwich boards are to be safely tethered.
- The location, placement or number of the signs must not cause an obstruction or danger. .
- In the interest of safety an authorised officer may direct that a sign not be placed on Crown land or in a particular location on Crown land and may direct the removal of a sign from Crown land. Failure to abide by such a direction is an offence.
- Signs in breach of these requirements may be seized and removed.
- The owner of the sign is to hold public liability insurance which covers the sign and indemnifies the Board to the value of $20 million. (Copy of insurance policy must be attached to application).

I have read and understood the rules and restrictions concerning portable signs and agree to abide by the rules and restrictions and hereby apply for an authority.

I have authority to make this application on behalf of the business.
